History of Junior Achievement’s Free Enterprise Society

Started in 2000, the Free Enterprise Society (FES) provides worldwide recognition of individuals who demonstrate outstanding support in helping Junior Achievement accomplish its mission of ensuring that every young person can succeed in a global economy. Membership requires an annual gift of $10,000 or more.

JASoCal’s Unique Arm of The Free Enterprise Society

JASoCal’s Free Enterprise Society is the Southern California arm of this exclusive, internationally-recognized group of individuals dedicated to perpetuating the pillars of Junior Achievement: work readiness, entrepreneurship and financial literacy. JASoCal’s membership includes 29 active individuals hailing from a wide range of industries including real estate, finance, entertainment, advertising, construction, private business, and law.

Membership Qualifications

- Contribution of cash or other assets valued at $10,000 or more per calendar year.
- Gifts may be from individuals, personal or family foundations.
- Contributions may be directed toward special events such as dinners, golf tournaments, etc. to qualify.

Membership Benefits

- Exclusive invitations to Free Enterprise Society events. These events grant FES members unique access to intimate gatherings with celebrated personalities and business leaders in distinct venues.
- Spouses are included as members and receive equal recognition and access.
- Inclusion in annual JA Worldwide Business Hall of Fame conference and The Registry publication.

For additional information on how you can get involved please contact Monica Farrell, mfarrell@jasocal.org, 323.785.3523.
